Message from Kebab Factory

Best kebabs in Boston!

- Great Atmosphere
- Lunch Buffets
- Catering and Delivery Services

Way back in the 14th century, the Moghuls invaded Hindukush, 'the land of milk, honey and other rich treasures.' In return, they left behind a trail of destruction, and well, the kebab. The kebab was, at the time, just meat sprinkled with salt, which was barbecued and gobbled up by this army on the move. But soon it caught the fancy of Indian chefs. And by their very capable hands, the kebab was perfected into a sublime art. They chose the finest meats, created an amazing array of marinades in which these meats were transformed into savory goodness. Cooking was now also improved. The open fire was too unpredictable, so the even, dry heat of the tandoor took its place. All this effort to create the perfect kebab; the kind which you can savor at The Kebab Factory in Somerville.

Visit us at The Kebab Factory any day of the week for lunch and dinner.

So Kebab Factory, once you find parking you walk into a small restaurant with home made tables filled with beans with a glass coating pretty cool the food is probably the best indian food I ever had very traditional I'm always lovin life when I can see the cooks at work. I love this restaurant - quick efficient service and a decent spread of good food - I am a veggie so I had to pick and choose but I see my flesh eating friends devour carcass after carcass of chicken, goat, pigs etc.

Go atleast before 11.45 am on weekdays to ensure that the crowds don't drive you crazy.

The best Indian food I have tried in Boston. As the name suggests, go for the kabobs! The lunch buffet was also fantastic!
